Dear Friend,

To commemorate President's Day, I delivered a speech to the House of Representatives on George Washington.

Washington was revered in his time, and remains so today. His conduct as President continues to inform current Presidents on how that office ought to be used. The story of this great American - his accomplishments, his valor, his character - is what I addressed in this speech.

The full speech is available here on my official website.

Have a happy President's Day!

Sincerely,

Daniel E. Lungren
Member of Congress
